

CRNI[®] EXAM CHECKLIST

DETERMINE your eligibility

- Do you have a current, active, unrestricted registered nurse (RN) license in the United States?
- Do you have a minimum of 1,600 hours of experience in infusion therapy as an RN within the past two years? 1,600 hours of direct bedside care are not required. Nursing experience may be in the areas of nursing education, administration, research, or clinical practice within the infusion specialty.

DOWNLOAD the handbook

- Download the latest edition of the CRNI[®] Exam Handbook from the INS website.

SUBMIT your application

- Apply for either the March or September administration of the CRNI[®] Exam online.

RECEIVE confirmation of approval

- You will receive confirmation from incc@incc1.org with preliminary instructions.
- Expect a letter with your unique ID number and additional instructions within 10 to 12 business days.

EXPLORE study aids

- Visit the Study Information tab to see all available study aids and resources.
- Read the detailed content outline on page 13 & 14 of the CRNI[®] Exam Handbook.
- Download the approved reference and abbreviation lists from incc1.org.
- Determine which publications most address your weak areas.

DEVELOP study schedule

- Create a manageable study schedule to adequately cover all core areas.
- Focus on areas you consider to be your weaknesses and the number of questions in each area.

LOOK for a follow-up

- Expect an e-mail from PSI approximately three weeks before the exam administration, with instructions on scheduling your testing appointment.

SCHEDULE your test date

- Exam appointments are typically available twice daily Monday through Saturday. Select a date, time, and location that fits your schedule.

REST UP!

- Be sure to get a good night's rest the night before the exam; if your body is tired, your brain is too!

FOR TEST DAY

- Bring two current forms of identification.
- Arrive at least 15 minutes early to your PSI test center
- Be confident in yourself and trust your instincts!
- There is no penalty for wrong answers, so if you don't know the answer right away, make an educated guess and move on to the next question.

PICK UP your results!

- Report to the testing supervisor to receive your score report.
- You may also access your score report online at www.goAMP.com.

CELEBRATE YOUR ACHIEVEMENT!

- Preparing for and taking the CRNI[®] exam is an outstanding achievement in and of itself. You've already improved your practice and grown your knowledge base substantially by sitting for the CRNI[®] exam.
